Travel, in the youngest sort, is a part of education;

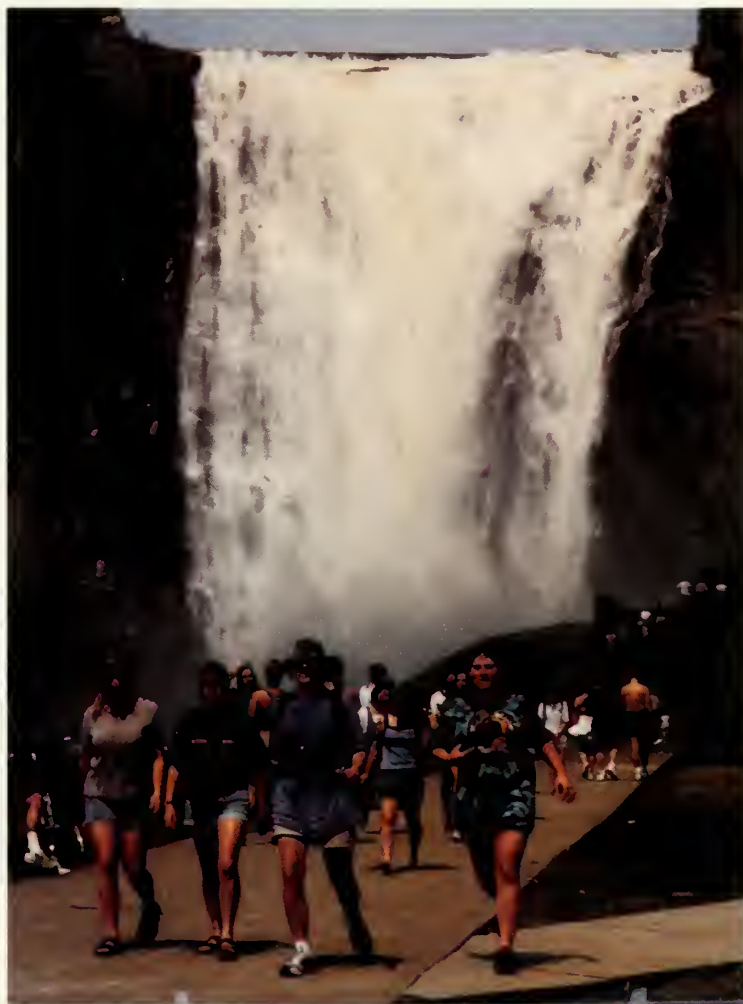

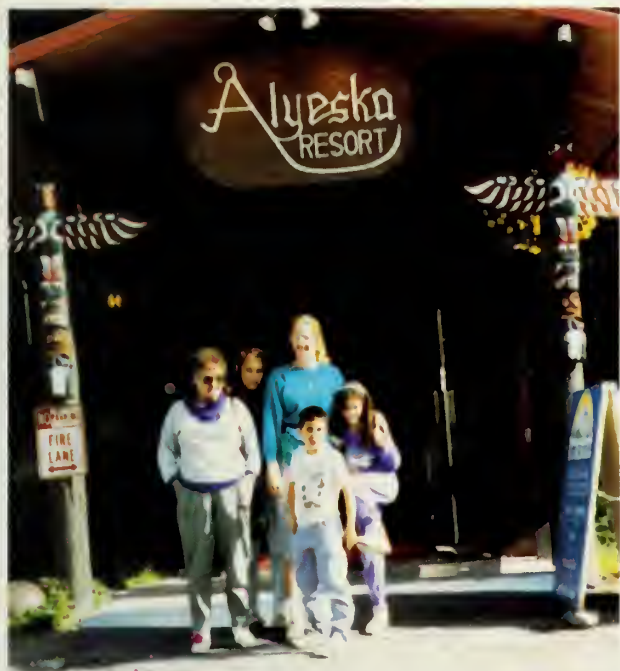

in the elder, a part of experience.

*He that travelleth
into a country,
before he hath some entrance into the language,
goeth to school,
and not to travel.*

Let his travel appear rather in his conversation than in his apparel or gesture.

*Let him not change his country manners
for those of foreign parts, but only admit the best of what he has learned abroad into the customs of his own country.*

That young men and women travel with some tutor is advised, provided that the teacher be one that hath been in the country before, and may be able to tell what things are worthy to be seen, what exercises or discipline the place yieldeth.

*Let him not stay long
in one city or town;
more or less
as the place deserveth,
but not long.*

It is strange that in sea-voyages where there is nothing to be seen but sky and sea, men should make diaries ...

*... but in land travel, wherein so much is to be observed,
they only omit it.*

Let diaries, therefore, be brought in use.

Around The World In 180 Days

North? East? South? West?

No matter where you go in life, your education, the knowledge of the world gained here over the last twelve years, will be your passport. Have a nice trip!

The Road To Wellville

Journeys that cover great distances, or as in our case, last for twelve years, can certainly take their toll. After being confined to a desk all day your body begins to ache in places you didn't even know you had places before. Your mind reels from the endless succession of lectures. Can't we stop and rest for awhile? At least stretch our legs? We want to do something fun for a change! And thus physical education was introduced into the curriculum.

Over the years we've progressed from bean bags, make-the-maze, and the big parachute, to prison ball, co-ed wrestling, and rope climbing. At the high school we've tried our hand at sports of a semi-lethal nature such as archery, lacrosse, and floor hockey, in addition to the old standbys; football, basketball, and softball (curiously, prison ball has reappeared as well). As interesting as some of those activities have been, however, there are still occasions when the same old feelings of restlessness come over us.

Fortunately, in the last four years we have had Ms. Cathy Meader along on our trip to steer us past the doldrums. We interviewed her before writing this piece and, although we found out some interesting facts about her background: about her supportive family, her stellar athletic career at Westfield State, and her coaching tenure at Cathedral, the primary reasons for her success were already known to us.

Ms. Meader is a born leader. She communicates her love for her chosen field with intelligence and grace, and her smile can charm even the most world-weary senior. She works hard. Her duties as student council advisor have given way to the increased responsibilities of the athletic director's position she currently holds, yet Ms. Meader still finds the time to chaperone our dances, look in on our Spartenum rehearsals, and attend our games. Her interest in our lives and well-being is genuine and heartfelt-the mark of a true friend and, or a great teacher. She has made our journey much more meaningful and thus, much more fun, and if we're lucky we'll carry a little bit of Ms. Meader's spirit with us wherever we go in life. For these reasons, and innumerable others as well, the Class of '99 dedicates the AEGIS to Ms. Cathy Meader. Thanks for showing us the way.

TWO FOR ...

A long time ago when the Earth was green, when the schedule read A-B-C-D-F-E on Mondays and no, one had ever heard of "Day One", let alone "Day Two", when two vice principals reigned in the office and students aides poured over paperwork before sprinkling memos among the homerooms, before Mr. Freccero or Mr. Mazzariello, before Dr. Drinkwater and Dr. Costa too, there was Mrs. Fitzgerald.

Students, who only spend four years at ELHS if they are good, don't often get to know "Mrs. Fitz" anymore, which is too bad. She started working here as a secretary twenty years ago (after a similar seven-year stint at Birchland) and the force of her personality has dominated our office's atmosphere ever since. Every student who ever worked as an office aide has quickly fallen under her intoxicating spell, a potent mixture equal parts caustic wit, bottomless compassion, brutal honesty, and abundant love. Fools, whether in the form of student, teacher, or parent, were seldom suffered kindly, and to any of us foolish enough to skip a day of school she proved a very formidable Flo. Likewise, fans of any football team other than her Miami Dolphins, or supporters of democrats in any election were wise to avoid Mrs. Fitzgerald throughout November. She is a loyalist, through and through.

Fortunately, over the years her greatest loyalty has been to us, and to our many enthusiasms. She was always there for our sports teams, our Academic Awards Nights, our Spartans, and our graduations. She was our number one fan as well as our hardest worker behind the scenes. By the time this book is published, our friend Mrs. Fitzgerald will have retired to her new home in New Hampshire. Her husband Gene, son Gene Jr. and daughter Ann Marie (both ELHS alums), and her grandchildren will finally have her all to themselves. No longer will she have to take her lunch in a book closet or at the back of the stage, the only places she could find peace in the midst of her typically hectic days. The office lights will still be on, but the place will never, ever, be as bright.

... THE ROAD

The East Longmeadow High School that first opened its doors in 1961 was very different from the ELHS we attend today. What we know as the freshman/sophomore hallways hadn't been built yet, and there was no science wing, either. The pool wouldn't be added for another six years and the small gym wasn't even on the drawing board. There weren't even any seniors; it had been decided that the first graduating class should get the chance to put its mark on the school for two years before moving on, therefore the only upperclassmen were juniors.

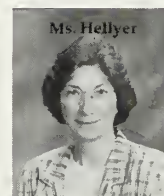

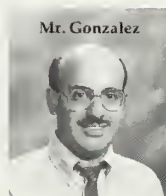

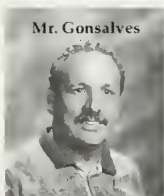

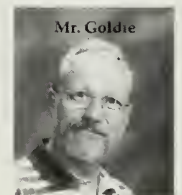

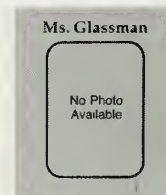

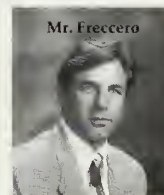

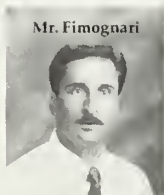

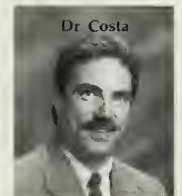

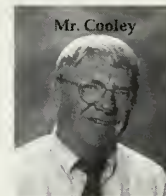

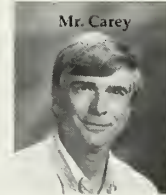

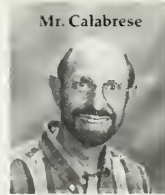

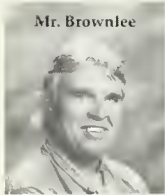

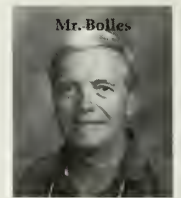

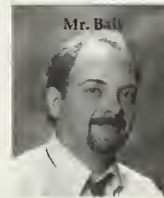

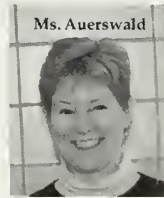

There was a Miss Herschuk.

The teacher known now in our politically correct times as "Ms. Herschuk" has, in fact, been here from the very beginning, teaching business classes, advising the Honor Society, keeping the activity accounts, putting her own indelible mark on ELHS. Her mother had convinced her of the importance of teaching as a vocation, and Miss Herschuk certainly never forgot; she has been a consummate professional and dependable friend ever since. When the cheerleaders needed an advisor many years ago, Miss Herschuk signed up. It didn't matter that she hadn't cheered before, the girls needed the help. When Spartanum needed an advisor she didn't hesitate. Ten years, and ten fantastic shows later, she took her first break. She ran the student store, served on countless numbers of faculty committees, and still tended to classes. That's the kind of person she is- fun to be around, but all business when it counts.

When she retires next November Miss Herschuk will take with her the memories of what it was like here in the earliest days of ELHS: the excitement of being in a new school and the sense of responsibility that comes with establishing standards and traditions. We hope she also takes away an abundance of satisfaction for a job well done. Our building, our ELHS, will never be the same without her.

SENIORS

"A journey of a thousand miles must begin with a single step."

- Lao Tzu

For those of us who graduate this year these 180 days seem like the last steps of an overly long, particularly tiring trip. Still, it has been quite a ride. In twelve years of public education we've traveled to the far corners of the world: to Ancient Greece and Medieval England, to colonial Africa and Southeast Asia, across the oceans to "discover" the Americas, to the battlefields of countless wars around the globe, to the center of the nucleus and the edges of the known universe, to the innermost recesses of the human body, to the furthest reaches of man's imagination.

We may have grown weary from wrestling with uncertain directions and unfamiliar languages, of learning the state capitals (and world capitals, too), of memorizing the principle exports and reporting to the rest of the class what we've discovered. It has not been easy; going anywhere with such a large family seldom is. Even these last 180 days, which should be a breeze for seasoned travelers like us, will have their share of surprises, a few bumps in the road. But on the first Sunday in June we'll set our bags down and celebrate our journey's end, our first homecoming.

And on the next day the real journey begins.

Winged time glides on insensibly, and deceives us; and there is nothing more fleeting than years. Ovid
Our years at ELHS are over, but there is much more out there waiting for us beyond the town lines of E.L. and the memories I've made here won't be forgotten. Mom and Dad: Thanks for all your love and support. Michael: Thanks for all your good advice, and making me see things another way. Rob: We've been through a lot together and no matter what you've always been there for me. We've made countless memories that I'll cherish forever. You are a very special friend to me and will always hold a special place in my heart. Andrea: Whatever happened to the "blueprints of my life"? I guess the white picket fence rotted. Canada, Merry x-mas, "what's that on your shirt?" my manager, my lawyer, but most of all my lil' raspberry. Keep in touch forever. Jayme: Typing, "Frappe, frappe, sur la porte bébé", psych walks and the DCC Wed. nights. Oh, yeah say cheese! Lauren: 3 musketeers, Donut Dip conversations and bottle caps. Erin: Dance and Y.B. Good luck next year. And how could I forget my Pool Boys: butt-2-butt, "girl", "oh" what does that mean? Thanks for all those fun late nights. We all knew the day would come when we'd have to say good-bye. But I don't want to say good-bye, just "later" for now.

I can't believe we're finally out. Four years ago we entered this school wide-eyed and willing to start new. Now it's all ended. I would like to thank my mom and dad, first, because without them I wouldn't have made it this far. Beth: Who knew we would be such good friends? Thanks for everything. Justin: Thanks for making the times we spent together memorable ones. Alfredo: You are the best guy friend a girl could ever have. Thanks for being my protector. Lauren/Katelin: You are the best underclassmen I know. Keep in touch. Josh, Mike, Tim: BMW'S, "watch out for that rock". Why do your plans always work? And de goat. I love you guys. Good luck to the Class of '99. Remember life is what you make of it so make it good.

I never thought these 4 years would go by so fast. To my Class: I'm glad I got the chance to know so many different people with different personalities. I wish you all the best of luck. S.D. and M.B.: You guys have been my friends for a long time, but through these years you became my best. We had some fun times. Camping, the close call, 5-0, 5-0! Lacrosse, pick up the ball Spencer! Breton, let's pick up some Elio's! Thanks for all the laughs. I hope we stay friends for a long time. Burke: Variate inversely now! Kristy: Thank you for always being there for me, and for making my last two years memorable. You mean so much to me and will always hold a special place in my heart. To my family: Thank you for the guidance you've given me all through school, and for bugging me to do my homework. You always looked out for me to make sure I'd succeed. To the soccer team: Thanks for working hard, and making it a great time. Good luck to all the younger guys in the future. M.N.: We could have used you this year on the team. I wish you were here, and the best of luck to you.

Jeffrey Ashline

It's finally senior year. It went by so fast. Joe: Remember the grasshopper on your lip, the Flying canoe and just hangin' around. Dups: Wrestling in your house, doing human pretzel and chillin' on the front porch. Baggie: Crashing into telephone poles. Adam: Yackin' in Duprey's shoe and super bowl parties. Cabral: Break dancing at the semi and shootin' hoops. Bednarz: Trip to Holyoke Mall. Christine, Adam, Justin, and Phalan: It's been fun getting to really know you all. Mom: Thanks for being there for me. I love ya'. Good luck to the Class of '99.

Melanie Bachand

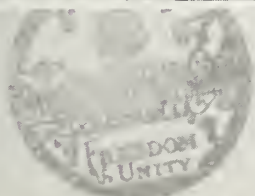

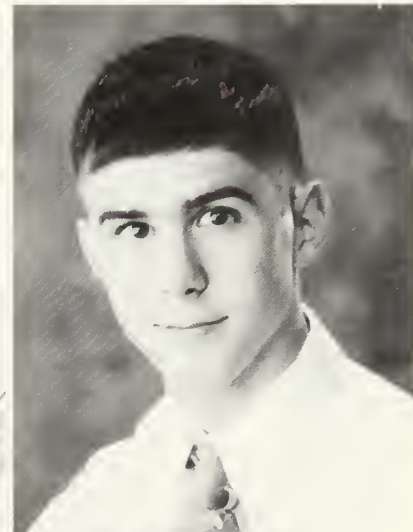

Thank you Mom and Dad for being there and helping me out whenever I needed you. I love you. Rick: Your last couple of years will go by quicker than you think. You're doing great! Just keep in mind. I used to be your bodyguard in Mapleshade. Andy: My best friend! Where do I begin? April 16, 97, Nantucket, our necklace forever, "1 year," rides to the beach, new tires on my car, (Ha)! It's been fun and exciting! I hope we have many more fun times together. Thanks a lot for sticking by my side and being there when I needed you. I love you! Courtney: The prom, "There's smoke coming from the e-brake," Newport. Lauren: The picture, our swim at Otis, "He has too many problems." Laura: "I'm just eating my lunch!" Good luck to the Class of '99.

Most things I know I learned in the past four years. Sometimes life was hard or boring, or seemed pointless, but I just waited for things to get better, like they always do. Even though I've done some stupid things, the hope of someday going to college and being free has kept me from messing up too badly. I want to thank my parents for this, I couldn't have done it without you. I wish Mary, Michael, and David better luck than I've had. If you ever need help with anything, I'm here. To all of my family: I love you. To everyone who's lived through these strange years with me: Words can't describe how much you mean to me. Mike, Brendan, Steve, Joe, Adam, Kev, Eagan, Dook-man, Beaulieu, and everyone else: What an experience it's been. It's crazy, because there will never be anything like it again. Hopefully I'll remember all the fun times I've had. Pink Floyd laser show! Watching The Wall, FC (represent), coco island, The Pits, England, Mrs. Goldie's class, the corn fields, Fig's house, Goo's house, paintings in the woods, mariokart, Buskey's circus, Spartanum, phat concerts, long car rides, and good music. I hope I can still chill with all my friends, we'll definitely stay in touch, and if I get into college, you can come chill at my dorm room. I've got so much to look forward to. Goodbye ELHS.

Mom and Dad: Thanks for always doing your best to guide me in the right direction. I love you both. John: Make the best of your last year and have fun. Kim: We've had some of the best times of my life together: work, car chases, $10.57 ... You've always been a great friend to me. Thanks. Deepa: Softball and Sundays never would've been the same without you. Thanks for the great memories. Joan: I could always count on you to make me laugh. I'll miss you. B: We made it! Thank you for everything. You've been a very best friend to me and I love you. Kim: Your sleepovers were the best! I'll always be jealous of the Probe, though. Ry: You've always been an incredible friend even through our most traumatic times. Promise never to change. G: 11th grade spasms. "NOD!" Pip: I'll miss all your energy. Lauren: Whenever you need advice, I'll always be around. K.C. and S.R.: You guys are great. Thanks for all the rides. Matt: I never mentioned the crash! You've been a great friend all these years. Keep in touch. V: Good luck with everything. We had some great times together that I'll never forget. Lisa: Thanks for the memories. Ang: Good luck in Germany. I'll miss you! M.B.: Thanks for helping to make this year really fun. Pat: You're Golden. Everyone in the Class of '99: Good luck!

Lauren Bandoski

Spanish Club 1; Key Club 2.

Mom and Dad: Thanks for putting up with me all these years! Cheryl: Good luck, keep smiling. Melanie: Where do I begin? Thanks for always being there. Never forget the picture, the guardrail, the beach, "chicken," Otis, and "dinosaur." You've been the greatest friend. Good luck to you and Andy. Jeff: Thanks for being a best friend and always hanging around. Mish: Thanks for all the advice. You always know what to say. Kim and Pete: I've never met any two people who could cheer me up as much as you. Lori: I'll always remember our fun times! Carrie: "Star," Kristina: There's so much to remember, that I'll never forget. Sarah: Paper cups? Metallica forever. Bev: Lolita? Good luck Class of '99.

Well, we finally made it and for the first time in my life I don't know what to say. First I want to thank my family for always being there for me, Dad: Sorry I didn't visit more often. Mom: Thanks for being cool about stuff. I love you guys. To my friends: We've had some fun but much more is to come. Jay: I meant freaky, forever into something right? Jazz 'n Diggz: It's been real but it ain't over, "What's the time?" Ben: you a continental soldier? Tony: Keep those beats comin' show em how it's supposed to be. You guys are my closest friends and I hope it stays like that. Bobby 'n Redman: You'll get here ... maybe. Mike: You live with me now, wow, what's goin' on? To the rest of you: Maybe I'll see you some time down the road, maybe not, but just remember -have fun cuz if you're happy nothing else matters... I'm gone "It's time to get ill."

Hey Class of '99, we all have to admit that the time really flew by, and all of the memories in between, Nature's Classroom to graduation, the good times and the not-so-good times, it was all fun. Football: Even though practices were exhausting, and there was plenty of mental anguish, it was truly a great experience. Thanks goes out to all the coaches and the upperclassmen. Boy, we had some great games our senior year. I will never forget them. Smut Dog: You're diesel in the 300 club. Adam: You're diesel too. PIG. Steve: It was fun toolin' on you, YEAH! And to all my other buddies, it was great. Now that everyone knows I am going to be the Valedictorian (not really) I'll give you all some good advice: Whatever you decide to do after high school give it 100% and make some darn good money! Hope to see you all at the class reunion, I'll be the one wearing the Air Force uniform lookin' all buff.

Four years have come + gone so quickly. I never thought graduation time would come so soon. I'd be lying if I said I'm not happy it's here, but of me is sad to leave. Each year here has taught me something new about myself + has prepared me for the responsibility I'll have to take on. We'll all start a new stage of our lives, but ELHS will always be a stepping stone as to how we got there. For me these years haven't been the easiest + I couldn't have made it without my family and friends. Mom: Thanks so much for your patience. Dad: Thanks for being proud of me, even though you never said it (I knew). Ker: We've been through everything together, + there's nothing about each other we don't know. Thanks for always being there, I hope we're best friends forever. Since I can't think of all the personal jokes I have with everyone + since I'm running out of room I want to tell Ness, Calra, Lena, Sean, Kev, Heather, Phalan, Kristin, Andrea, Laurel, Eli, Ryan, Brandie, Jay + Shawn that I love you guys. If I missed anyone I'm sorry, + I love you too. I also want to thank Valley West Day School + all the great people there. And last but certainly not least I have to thank John Rahilly from the bottom of my heart for having faith.

In most people's high school career, one meets seven classes and dozens of teachers. That's about 1,500 people just in our school! Since I can't mention them all, I'll just thank some who most affected my four years here. Thanks to: the 95-96 OM team, the 97-98 EAC (especially those who remained at the end of the year), Mike Q: MY BRAIN HURTS! Nadeau: Good luck in everything, Mr. Tighe: Well, you're a senior next year. Time flies, eh? Good luck, Mr. Mazz: Thanks for helping us in our efforts to get a Drama Club. To the teachers I've had: Thanks, and especially to those who wrote teacher recommendations. Nate-dogg: Ross says hi! I'll be looking for that book! Matt: The next two years will fly! Mom and Dad: Thanks a lot for your unconditional support in the past 17 1/2 years. Good luck to the Class of 1999. "Always look on the bright side of life" - A fellow Eric

The past 4 years at ELHS have been fun to say the least. I've made many friends & even more memories. 1st of all, I'd like to thank the teachers who made the last 4 years go by so slowly. I'd like to thank Mr. G who wanted to see me succeed through & past high school. Thank you. 2nd, I'd like to thank all my close friends. BH: DB & don't forget it. DS: Hey Cole, having some car trouble? AV: The next time you go to get cleats, ask someone else. MH: We'll always have Mr. Dowling's class. JB & GB: Where's the party this weekend? SC & MB: Huh. JJ: How can I forget fourball partners for life. TF, JC, MC, BD, BB, CC, & RS: We go back to MV, except Zah, but he was there in spirit. JS: The love of my life. Sorry for tormenting you pretty much all through high school. JP, AN, JL: Have fun next year. KF: Last but not least, we've been friends for 18 years, & hopefully many more. Mom: I wouldn't have made it this far without you. Dad: You've taught me a lot about life. You both have been there for me right from the start. Danielle: I wouldn't have gotten away with so much if it weren't for you. I hope your high school days are as good as mine were. Words can't express how much I love & thank all of you. To my Abba-Zabba brothers: High school isn't the end. To all my classmates: Good luck in whatever you choose to pursue in life & always remember no goal is unreachable.

Time and time again we hear what a boring town old E.L. is but, if you look back on everything we've done together, I wouldn't trade the memories for anything. I would like to give shout outs to: Mom & Dad: Thank you for your support. I hope I accomplish everything you dreamt I'd do. Todd: Never forget the great times we spent together. From nursery school to now I've always had fun hanging out, partying, and collecting CD's with you. Fratar: Don't forget WU-TANG is forever. Ben: Even though we started off late we hit it off quickly, You've always made me laugh. Hope to have coffee with you when we're old and have kids so they can play some catch. Kevin: You really played the best-friend role. You were always there when I needed you. We have had so much fun together and I know it will never end. Matt: It was great to know someone always had your back. Thanks for motivating me to play football; this year was great, C-Cal: From Rhode Island to weekends we made the best of all the time spent. Lindsey: Thank you for the great times this past year. Hope your senior year is just as fun. To Joe, Christensen, Brian, Houser, Skowron, Buracks, Cormier, Verdile and Christy: High School wouldn't have been high school without you guys. Thanks!

How did we get here so quickly? It seems like such a short time ago that we began our journey through school, and now we're done. These last 4 years have been the best. The memories I have of everyone at ELHS will last a lifetime. I have some wonderful friends who I will never forget. SR: You are my best friend and you will always have a special place in my heart. When's Rod Stewart coming to town? The noise, BN(L), obscene bugs, and speed bumps. NP: We've grown so close these past few years. We survived highway traumas! Drooling on calculus at Friendly's. LK: You are the best singer I've ever met! Wheat bagels and Patches. EO: Intergalactic polytechnic, can I have a cake? RM: Always remember driving school, bees, good times and tag sale signs. EF: Here's to being random! JB: We love him! Math silliness. KH: It's Kurt Cobain! GL: Scatologies. RS: Last minute cram sessions really do work! KS&NH: Remember the corn! The Pac: We've had so many great times (laser tag, signs, and Chinese fire drills). I will always remember you. Mom & Dad: I never would have made it this far without you- thanks! To the Class of '99: It's time to start a new journey. Whatever path you choose, I hope you will be happy and successful. Well, it's over, and I ask myself 'Where have these last four years gone?' Ben, you've been my closet friend since first grade, and we've been through everything together. I'm sure we'll be through a whole lot more. Jay, we grew up together, fought together, did crazy stuff together, and basically did everything together. It's been great cuzin. Sean, whatever happened to our triangle? Anyway, it's great to have a really close friend that looks like Shaggy. Zoikes! Hey Dad and Mom, thanks for pushing me to be what I am now. Joey, thanks for being a great brother. I love you guys. Jessie, you've changed my life in so many ways since I've been with you. We've had great times together and awful times together, but that is all part of growing up. You mean so much to me. I love you... and to all my other classmates, it's been fun. Good luck. Peace. Diane: Girls nights, carmel, Kristy's house, the mile, scary movies, ATMs and singing. You can always make me laugh. Thanks. Gina: We've fought over a lot of guys, but had great times: Mickey's (the window), your backyard and garage, trampolines and driving around. Jenn: DENNIKY, Leo & Cecila, the mile, your drawer, "birdseed", our lists, we've been through a lot my favorite sister, Michelle: Remember interskate, and first kisses. Laura: My venting partner. Thanks for listening. "Camolets", car shopping, and not knowing what we're doing. Katie: Science parties, watch out for buses. Andrea: You talk too much but you're still fun to chill with. Mike: You've always been there for me, thanks for everything. I love you. Matt: Thanks for being who you are. Good luck with your last two years. Heather: Even though I don't always agree, I know you're right. Thank you. Mom & Dad: I couldn't have made it without you. Thanks for the help on the last minute projects and for all the support and trust in me. I love you both. To the Class of '99: Good luck.

We're finally here, our last year of high school, the time has flown by. To my big sister: Thanks keeping me out of trouble, most of the time. Laura: Permanent partner- no more stressing! When we switch cars? Diane: You're the one who makes me smile. Den-niky: Party at my house, you ending up sleeping in my bed. What's his name? Mike Bob, Bill, The Mile, girls' night! Gina: Hotties in driveway, animal noises, chocolate chip fight, Oh my God! My girls Adrienne, Emily, Serafin: Softball, driving around, listening to Method Man. Good luck with your last two years of high school stay out of trouble! Matt: Why are you smiling? Thanks for always making me laugh. Andrea: You're a great friend even if you are loud and annoying at times, you're fun to take out and chill with. JT: You can be bossy, but I know you're only looking out for me, thanks for everything. Mom and Dad: You are the best parents that I could ask for. Mom: Thanks for being a friend to me. I love you both. Erica: I would never have thought of us being best friends, but you were always there for me. From the Mile, 3rd of the month, camping, driving around, your laugh, sleepovers, the four of us doing nothing, but always having so much fun. Bill: We've been through a lot and if it's meant to be, it will happen, and you'll always be special to me. Good luck to the Class of '99.

Mom: You will always be in my heart. I am eternally grateful for everything you have given me and done for me over the years. Eventually, I will meet up with you in heaven, where once again we will be together. If it wasn't for all the love you have given me in the 17 years you have been with me I wouldn't be who I am now. I hope that you are proud of me in the present and in the future. I love you! We will soon be together. Dad: You have always been my strong upper hand, and now you will see what my future holds for me. Since I was a little, you've told me you love me, and now I'm older and capable of telling you I love you, for all of the years that I haven't before. Without you in my life, my life would be empty. I love you for everything! I hope you know I will always be here for you like you have been for me. Erik: Well, this is the year that both of our lives will be changed. We will be happy together, forever. You are truly my Knight and Shining Hero! I love you with all of my heart. Muffin! All of my friends: We've shared plenty of good times that overcome the bad times. I love everyone for their help and support throughout the years and when it was really needed. I love you all so deeply. We all have had many memories together and hopefully many more to come. I love you all! Love, Vanessa

I do not feel as though I am in danger of forgetting any amusing or important events. My friends & family already know my gratitude for their support, and that I love the all. Writing an incomplete biography of the most recent quarter of my life in some sort of queer shorthand will not do justice to the people and happenings that have meant so much to me. I only have room for one of the many topics. When I think about my high school experience an image of "discussions" comes to mind. I don't mean everyday discussions with your friends, I mean "classroom debates." I think, "Wow, if people get this loud and miserable about classroom debates, what are we going to do outside E.L.H.S.?" Maybe we can fight each other with atomic bombs and tear gas. The problem is that people don't understand the point of a good, healthy disagreement. The only logical reason for any argument, that I can see, is for groups of people to contribute as much knowledge as they can to a common pool, evaluate all this information, and leave the discussion more enlightened than when they arrived. If we compromise our freedom of expression we will all be doomed to ignorance. I apologize to those who thought I was just argumentative. All we gain from debate is the bettering of our own awareness and good nature. Thank you for helping.

All things change. It's the way of life. This is the hardest change. From high school into a world where you make the choices with no parents telling you what to do. Whether you make it a good change or a bad one is up to you. Lucretius once said change is the death of that which was before. We stand upon a new horizon in our lives, the first light of day shimmering across the morning waters- a sea of endless possibilities that we can only begin to imagine. In the days to come, we will begin a new chapter in our lives. Nothing yet has been written, the pages have never been turned. The story will be shaped by each and every one of us, and as long as we never lose light of our aspirations, what we've learned, and where we came from, all of us can achieve greatness. The past four years have prepared us for what lies ahead, and we'll never forget the people and experiences that have made these years a time that will remain special to our hearts ... To all my friends: France, Greece, Italy!!! Through good and bad, you've been more important to me than you can ever know. Achieve your dreams, and stay in touch! Mom and Dad: Thank you for always being there and supporting me in everything I did. The lessons you've taught me have made me who I am, and I will cherish them forever. It's finally the end. But, there is something else to worry about: all of the responsibilities of everyday adult life are now falling upon our shoulders. Now that we are finally reaching adulthood, we could make a difference in each other's lives. We sure had some great times. And when we look back at these moments in 10 or 20 years, we will actually see how much we would miss these times when you had very little, if any, worries in this world (compared to when we are older). I wish all of you the greatest of luck in the future, and I hope you all live the lives you feel capable of. I hope to see all of you someday in the future. And for all the underclassmen: Make sure you live your life to the fullest because you will appreciate it, sooner or later.

These four years of high school went by more like four months. We had a great time, and over the last year, I realized that my friends and I have something special. No matter what we did even if it was just hanging out at my house, Houser's, or the Buracks', we had a blast. Although we have only had four years to grow close, we will have the rest of our lives to have our friendships grow and to reminisce about our high school days. I know I had fun and have no regrets, I just wish classes didn't get in the way. Well anyway, thanks to all my friends for all the great memories and good luck to the Class of '99.

I can still remember coming in freshman year with four years to go. Well, we made it to the end, soon walking out those doors going our separate ways. I've had some of the best times and great memories throughout high school, from becoming best friends with Evan in the beginning of 9th grade, up to meeting the sweetest girl that I've ever met, Jordan, I love you. E.G. and C.W.: I'll never forget the great times that we had together. Ed: It's been a fun four years, see ya at the E.L.F.D. B.L.A.: I'm really glad we became friends. Dean: Sprite? Matt: It's been fun, watch out for undercover cops at the mall. Thanks to my teachers, especially Ms. McCormick, for all their help, and a big thanks to my parents, for all they've done for me, I couldn't have done it without them.

I briefly considered thanking everyone in my message, but that list is too long if I want to mention everyone. So I'll mention a few, and leave some advice. My greatest thanks have to go to the Guidance Department for getting me nearly all the classes I wanted. My next thanks to the good folks at Meadows Insurance Agency ("PLUG") for giving me my first job. And finally to the various people in school, especially my friends. Now for my advice: 1. If going to college, try not to need a car. It will help ease up your expenses. In the meantime, your insurance rates will go down, as you are considered a safe driver, even though you aren't driving. 2. If you ever need any help, you can probably reach me via the Internet at Chrisdon@play.net. There's no fee, and I tell no one anything (unless you tell me about a crime). You don't even have to tell me who you are. 3. New technology is great, but wait 6 months so you don't have to pay the "latest and greatest" price. 4. Vote Republican. 5. If I ever get around to writing it, buy my book. 6. Listen to AM radio. It's why I'm so smart. And finally: 7: Gambling, drinking, and smoking cost a lot, both in money and health. So don't do it and you'll be better off.

Shawn Ross

Listen Seniors and you will hear of life in High School starting with freshman year. The football games with the best of the band marked time till ski season like hour-glass of sand. IN the spring there was track and my first semi-formal. Trips to France, Canada, Greece is all traveling normal? Junior year began with cross country meets I wonder how I'd survive with blisters on my feet. AP Bio is a class I'll not soon forget cause I nearly cried when my fruit flies died. SAT came to for. How high would I score? And as I approach my graduation and leave dear EL with some trepidation I'll never forget the friends I have made nor the Banquets, the races, and holiday parade. We've been through a lot, Cape Cod '97, tool, driving around, across that bay, Load, Reload... it's been fun, summer '99 C.C. BEN: Peval, kid, every time we had nothing to do we would always end up at your house and it's always been cool. Kid, pull over there is a cop flashing its lights at us, keep it real man. BRETON: What kind of hiking boots you got? Hey summer '99 our house! Frostier: Dude. Let's hitchhike to Monson, buddah rides. JENN: PED. DUKE-MAN: We got some good memories, from me sitting on your lawn mower in the rain, to u driving us around on many rides, many porch sittings, + chillin' in your room... Thanks. GINA: I've known u for a while (since the rose) I will miss my girlfriend very much... ha-ha... Ralph. BUD: Yup!! Kid where's kent? Yo we're done, get those apartments we were talking about. Good luck. Kyle, Ryan and Lee: U guys taught me right and wrong, I'll miss u guys. Good luck to you all down the road. To the rest of the Class: Good Luck, keep your heads up, keep on burning!!!

Finally! Senior year! Thanks to my family and teachers for believing in me. With your patience and support I was able to succeed. Friends, we've had great times especially EL fire drills, rides to Enfield getting stuck in ditches at the airport and more! Nuno: You've been a model officer to me, thanks for letting me ride all those night shifts with you. Kristen: You have been what I always expected you to be for me, my sister. Thanks for not complaining TOO much about going to school so early. Mom and Dad: Without your love, support, trust, and absolute belief in my ability to succeed, I would not be where I am today. Thanks for all the pep talks and making me get my butt off the couch. I know it hasn't been easy for you either. I love you both, and you too, Kris. "Friends are forever and enemies will fade away." I think that's probably one of the most important lessons that I've learned during my 4 years here, and one that can be used for the rest of all our lives. Don't be intimidated by those who are stopping you. Be who you are and the ones that were there all along will still be there even for our new journey. First I want to thank my mom and dad who taught me never to give up, and my sister who can always make me laugh. Katie: (p.s. thanks for holding me with 2 hands.) Well I would like to start off by saying thanks to my mother. She was always there for me, good or bad. If it wasn't for her pushing me along I don't know what I would have done. The next person I would like to thank are my best friends Alexis & Tiffany. I don't know what I would do if they weren't in my life. We had some of the best times together. (Sallys, Avalon, Central, Hay Rides, kickin' parties, sleepovers & much much more. I'll never forget all the great memories we had together. No matter how much I say I hate high school I really had some of the best times. Class of 2000 don't take advantage of the situation & live your life to the fullest!! Good luck next year! Well I guess its time to say good-bye for now. I love you Mom, Dad, Kev, Lex, Tiff, & Chris. Peace-Out

Our time as students in EL has now expired, so it's time to move on as most of us know. Moving on- it seems funny that I'm saying that because all I can remember is sitting on the bus in 7th and 8th grade wondering what high school would be like- and now I know. East Longmeadow has been so good to me right from the time I moved here 11 years ago. I've met so many friends and had so much fun, I wonder how I will react when I enter college for my first year. There are so many friends that I need to thank in my wonderful stay at EL, but I can only name a few. EM, JB, EN, DE, Jon M, JH, JM, and FE: I will never forget the times we spent together and I will cherish them forever. To Mr. Gonzalez: Ever since I met you back in 7th grade, you have helped me find the path towards success in life and I will never forget that. Finally, to my Mom and Dad: Thank you for life and putting up with me through it. You guys are the greatest! Good luck to the Class of '99 in all of your future endeavors!

Educators: Many times it was the things that happened after 1:50 that made a difference. The school and community are indebted to all those who run extracurriculars. Mr. G and Mr. Bail: Some teachers can be your friend; some friends just happen to be teachers. Coach Cav: All anyone needs to succeed is a chance. Thanks for a break or two. Friends: Whether we j.f.ed or just exchanged smiles in the hall, you know who you are. Thanks for being real and truthful and for dealing with me. Come see me for your own personal shout-out. Becca: Your love gives my life purpose. Keep my heart, I don't need it. Family: You are me. I live for Thanksgiving dinner, Nanny cake, and Easter candy. Mom and Dad: Thank you for being proud of me regardless, and for giving so much to me. I love you. Class of '99: It's the beginning. You picked me to be your president and I am still honored. UNDERCLASSMEN

"To travel hopefully is a better thing than to arrive."

Robert Louis Stevenson

When you're an underclassman you're travelling steerage class on the big ocean liner of life. Oh sure, once in awhile you get to walk up on deck with the seniors and catch a brief glimpse of the sun. Most of the time though, you're trapped below deck with the rest of the unnamed rabble, waiting for a good table at lunch, looking forward to the day when graduation will set you free from this ship of fools.

Or are you? Lately there's been a bit of unrest among the senior crew; friendships straining against the close quarters of the last twelve years. We've seen them muttering to themselves as they pass along the halls, worrying about whose party to go to on the weekend, who to take to the prom, what college to attend. They aren't always the happy lot they seem. Perhaps it's better to lay low and stoke the fires of anticipation for another year.

SPORTS

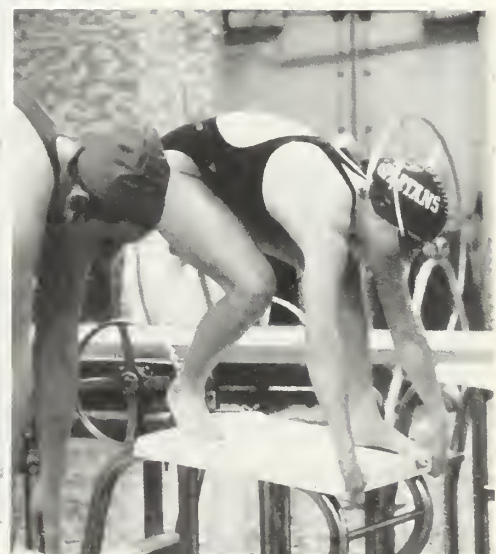

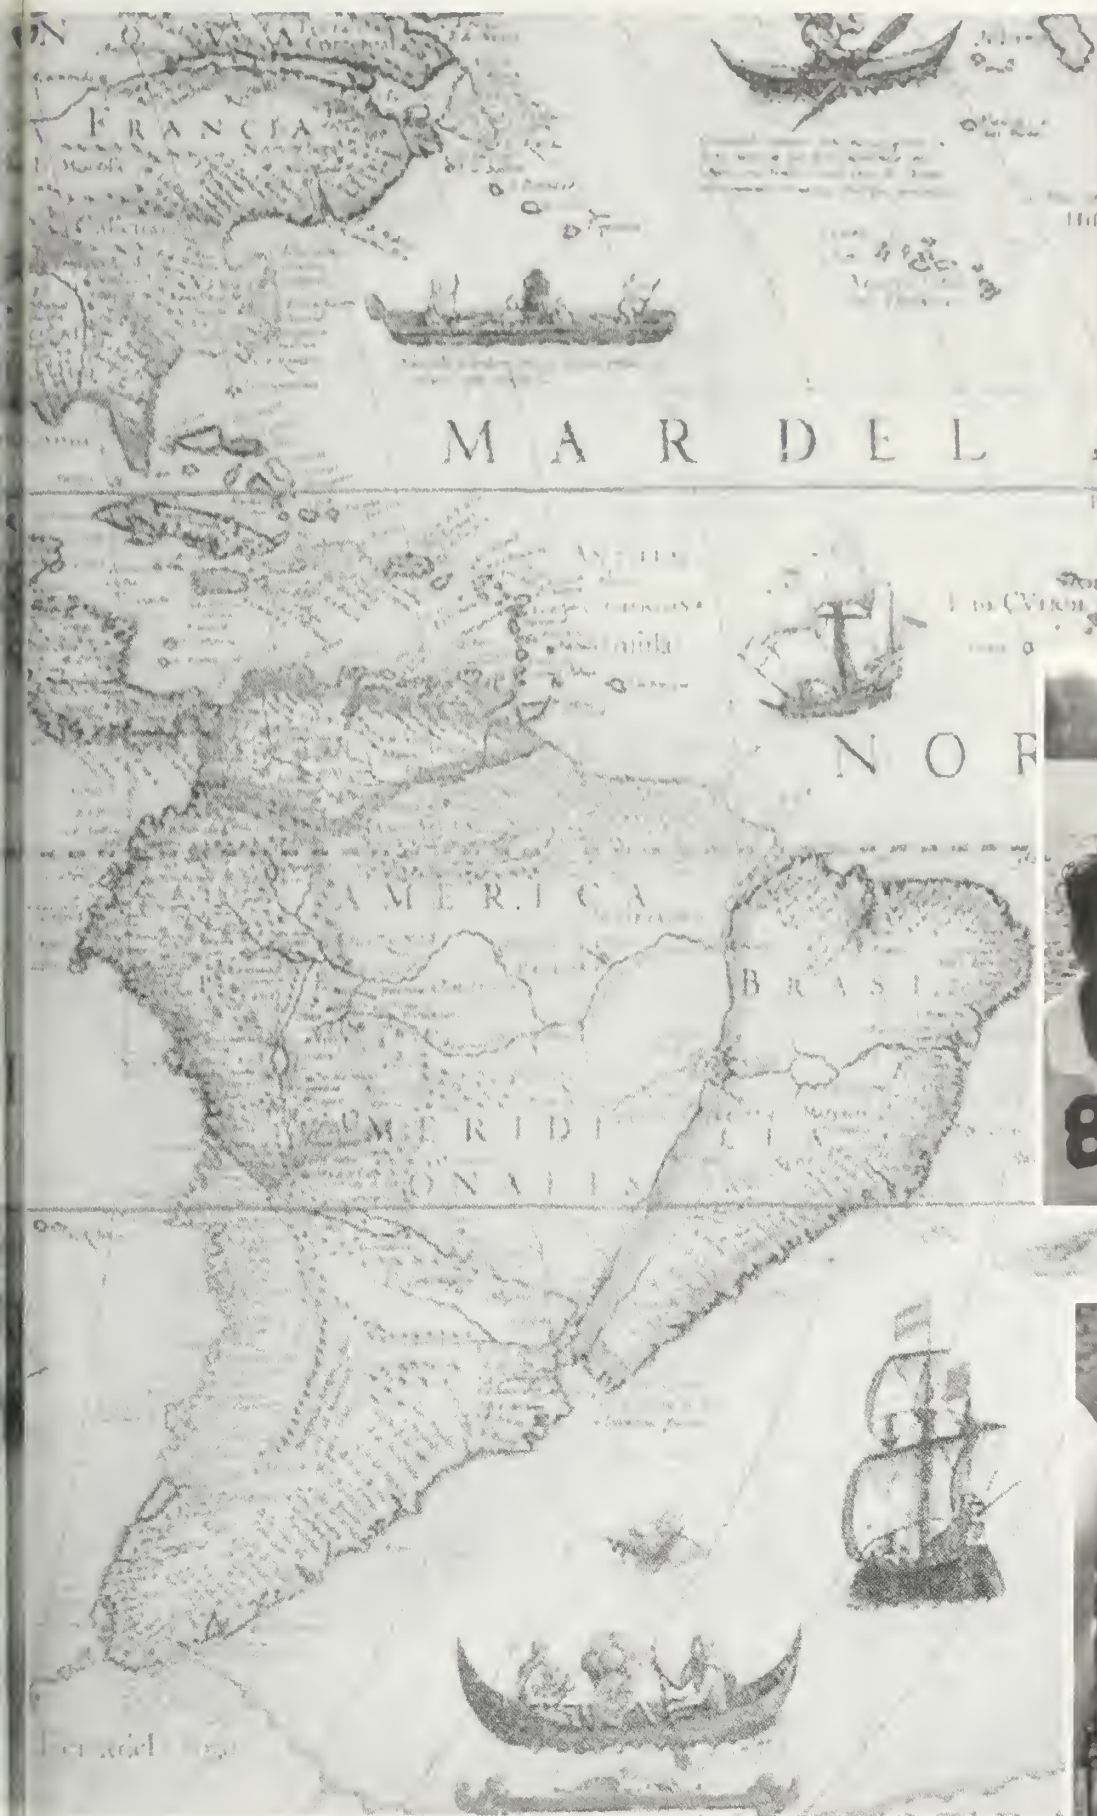

The use of travelling is to regulate imagination by reality, and instead of thinking how things may be, to see them as they are.

At first glance the relationship between sports and travel may seem a bit obvious. One of the distinct joys (or sorrows if you have a tender rear-end) of our high school years has been climbing aboard a big yellow bus with our teammates and riding off together to do battle. In fact, many years from now we'll likely forget the results of many individual games, but we'll remember distinctly the good times we had, who sang the worst or belched the loudest, or the time, perhaps, when the driver got lost and we got to go to McDonald's. Like the cliché says, "getting there" was definitely half the fun.

Sports and travel are connected in another way, too. When we participate in hockey, or soccer, or golf, we are actually experiencing something of the culture of the countries where these games originated. America is known as the melting pot for its ethnic diversity—it is only natural that it has become a place where the sports of many countries are enjoyed by all.

The final association between athletics and travel is the least obvious but maybe the most important. When we are abroad, alone in a foreign country, unable to communicate, we soon find our strengths and weaknesses laid bare. How resourceful are we? Can we make our way? In sports we find ourselves tested in similar fashion. Are we able, skillful enough, strong enough both physically and mentally? Are we the equals of our fellow competitors? How do we measure up? Like travel, sports give us a more accurate view of ourselves.

Scotland- country in northern Great Britain, and nearby islands: population 5,187,000; Home of heather, haggis, gaelic, Glaswegians, and golf!

This year's golf team proved to everyone that the best can get better. An exciting regular season, which included two victories over league rival Agawam, was capped off by a win over Cathedral in the final match. The win brought an end to a perfect season in which the Spartans compiled a record of 18-0-1 and captured the Valley Wheel title. After qualifying for the tournament with little trouble, the Spartans went on to successfully defend their status as Western Mass champions. Strong play from Cocaptain Joe John, James Cormier, Steve Alminas, and Dan Dickson enabled the team to finish ahead of runner-up Cathedral by several strokes. Dickson stunned the field when he fired a 4-over-par 74 to grab the individual championship. The following week the Spartans moved on to the state tournament at Springfield Country Club where high winds and cold temperatures forced the average scores into the low 90's. Low rounds by Cocaptain Eric Naglieri, Dave Ference, John, and Dickson came up just short of the mark as Barnstable edged E.L. by 3 strokes. Next season Coach Courtney will expect players like Ference, Dickson, and Alminas to replace the departed seniors with support from Jeremy Sawyer, Anthony Disa, and a number of other junior varsity players.

Tears in his eyes? Matt hopes for continued success after a fantastic debut season.

Future captain Dave Ference was known for his soft touch around the greens and carried a 39 ave age for the season.

Co-captain Eric Naglieri didn't miss many of these en route to helping the Spartans defend their Western Mass title.

Western Mass individual champ Dan Dickson keeps his eye on the ball.

"I never had to worry about pine trees in Florida."

SOCCER

Italy- Country in S. Europe including the islands of Sicily and Sardinia: population 59,805,000; home of gondolas, gorgonzola, spaghetti, scallopini, and soccer!

With the loss of 10 seniors from last year's finalists, no one expected this year's Spartans to make a run at the title. As so often happens in high school sports, however, senior leadership pulled a young team through rough times. The forward line of co-captain Jackie Scully, Karoline Flynn, Annette Quatrano, and Chelsea Ruscio, struggled to find a consistent scoring touch. In the meantime Kerry Doyle, Sarah Cabot, Erin Duffy, Erinne Goodwin, Jess DeAngelo, Jess Piecul, and Jenn McCormick fought to control the midfield. The defense was anchored by Kristen Edgett and co-captain Shannon Leger, along with Abby Rohlf, Katie Bedard, Piecul, Rosie Lalli, and Ali Claffy. The Spartans entered the tournament with something to prove after ending the season with a 4-10-3 record. In their first game the girls beat Mohawk 2-0 in a one-sided game. Belchertown gave the Spartans more of a game, but EL prevailed with a 1-0 victory. Unfortunately in the semifinals the Spartans wound up on the short side of a 2-1 loss to Wahconah, but earned respect and proved they shouldn't have been the last seed. The league recognized Leger, Edgett, Cabot, and Duffy with postseason honors.

Freshmen Erinne Goodwin came up strong in the midfield.

Junior Annette Quatrano earned plenty of time on the field.

Sweeper Abby Rohlf was unbeatable.

Senior captain Jackie Scully provided needed goals in crucial games.

Cabot showed up on time to play this time.

Sophomore sensation Erin Duffy kept the midfield going for her second year.

"Doyle Rules!"

D was the team's SUPERWOMAN!

You'll always win with junior Karoline Flynn.

Captain Shannon Leger carried the Spartans to the Western Mass semi-final.

Kristin Edgett could always be relied on to solidify our young defense.

FIELD HOCKEY

France- Country in W. Europe: population 50,620,000; home to French bread, French braids, French horns, French doors and field hockey!

The Spartan Field Hockey team got off to a shaky start against their Northern and T Central Division opponents, but in their own league they righted themselves. Ten seniors returned to lead the Spartans in the fall, including: Katie Tougas in goal; co-captain Julie Moran, Jayme Brown and Andrea Corbett on defense; Amy Bertrand (All-Wmass first team), Julie Niznik (MVP), and Ericka Rugani in the midfield; and co-captain Carla Cardaropoli, April Goodwin, and Brandie White on the forward line. This season included a Senior Day victory over rival Southwick, the girls' first win over the Rams in years. The Spartans also earned enough points in the Southern Division to qualify for the WMass tournament for the fourth straight time. Their year ended with a heartbreaking, double overtime loss to Northampton in the playoffs. Next year the Spartans will be led by tri-captains, Hannah Ohlin (the team's leading scorer this fall), Lindsey Wright (halfback), and Theresa Yacavone (center). They will head an experienced cast that includes: juniors Kelley Barthelmes, Kimi Wright, Jenelle Levesque, Kristen Therien, and Ashley McCarthy, and sophomore Missy Rudzinski. The pressure will be on the Spartans to return to the tournament and maintain their status among the elite area teams.

United States-Country in North America: population 270,000,000; home of the 4th of July, apple pie mud in your eye, and Friday night football!

Change was the theme for the football team this year. From the beginning you could see an added desire that the team lacked the year before. The season was an improvement from last year and for the first time ever two running backs surpassed the one thousand yard milestone. The first was Matt Maurer, who was also an All-Western Mass selection. The second was Dave Skrowron, who made the second team for Western Mass. Anthony Verdile was an All League selection at the cornerback position as well. The offensive performance is accredited to the lineman who are very young. It had good leadership through Eric Smith and Adam Edwards, who showed the underclassmen, Andrew Robar, Tim DiClementi, and Phil Giguere the way it was done. Others that added a great deal to the depth were Kevin Ford, Jeff Burack, Chris Ruscio, Jason Cabral, Keith Halon and Mike Lupi. The late comers, Joe Costa and Matt Henry helped out tremendously and look out next year for Jeff Brown and Jeff Cabral.

Jeff Burack's return to the Spartans after a two year absence led to an improved passing game, here a completed post pattern to Frank Paige.

Smut-dog! Eric Smith gets down and dirty.

The end of an era. Matt Maurer's brilliant season marked the end of 11 years of Maurer excellence in Spartan red and gray.

Take the plunge!

Keep your heads up. Though tied at the half, the Spartans dominated Amherst down the stretch.

Motivational speaker. In his second year as head coach, John Caverly has made the Spartans a Suburban League team to be reckoned with once again.

VOLLEYBALL

United States- country in N. America; population 275,000,000: home of underdogs and heavy favorites, buzzer-beating shots and last-second blocks, the agony of defeat and the thrill of victory and volleyball!

The girls' volleyball team was plagued by injuries in the fall of '98, preventing the Spartans from a reprise of last year's playoff appearance. Senior tri-captains Julia Nelligan, Marlena McCoy, and Vanessa Fuda led the girls into competition by being enthusiastic and supportive, and also by playing well themselves. McCoy and Fuda were selected to the WMass and coaches' All-State teams. Two hard fought 1-point losses to eventual Western Mass champs Ludlow were the highlight of the girls' season. Proving to be great assets to the Spartans, freshmen Ashley Pelzek and Rochelle Keefe contributed greatly to the team's success. Senior Lisa Ryan, junior Casey Grzebien, and sophomores Amy Livingstone, Kim Proulx, and Michelle Gamache rounded out this fairly young team. Although All Western Mass players McCoy and Fuda will be hard to replace next season, upcoming JV players Amarilis Rojas, Sara Halpin, and Megan Paulette will look to step in to fill the void.

England- Country occupying most of the southern half of the island of Great Britain: population 52,400,000; home of King Henry's I-VIII, hooliganism, Shakespeare, sonnets and soccer!

East Longmeadow Spartans boys' soccer team posted another strong season, finishing with a 6-5-7 record. Utilizing seniors Kevin Lennon, Kyle Anderson, Brendan Humphries, Ed Bednarz, Todd Fratar, Ben Deane and senior captains Terrance Leahy (All-State), Brian Butler (All-State), and Ryan Shaw (Western Mass), the Spartans climbed their way to the Western Mass. Semi-Finals, 0-3 start. The season was a challenge for the Spartans, with several scoreless tie games against powerful opponents Southwick, Easthampton, and Northampton. In spite of this, the Spartans returned to the playoffs by winning four of their last six games and tying two. The semi-final game of the Western Mass championship typified their season. After a slow start, allowing opponent Easthampton a 2-0 lead, the Spartans regrouped and put home two goals - one on a set play from Terrence Leahy to Ryan Shaw and the second by Junior Mike Sullivan with just under 6 minutes to play. In overtime, the Spartans continued the pressure against the Easthampton defense, but fell just short on a goal at the 8 minute mark. The Spartans, led by Coach Tom Rivet, should continue their success next year, with returning juniors (Captain) David Labrie, Andy Lieberwirth, Damien LaChapelle, Ryan D'Amario, Ryan Duffy, and Mike Sullivan.

Greece- country in S. Balkan peninsula: population 8,612,000; birthplace of mythology, the Olympics, democracy, one thousand different kinds of columns, and cross country!

"Run hard or run home" may have been the unofficial motto of the 1998 ELHS cross country teams, but it was a maxim that was certainly taken to heart by members of both squads. The boys posted a record of 7-8, an impressive mark when one considers that those seven wins outnumber the combined victory total of the last three years. The team was led by senior co-captains Jeff Hart and Joe Brassard, and by veteran runners Jeff Zilch, Carl Barkson, and Dave Donn. Ryan Corbett was an impressive newcomer and will return next fall with promising classmates Jeff Caron and Tim Brown. The fall of '98 also marked the end of the line for two of the finest runners in ELHS history, Stephanie Poole and Maggie Jaroszewicz, who had dominated their sport for four years, and who shared team MVP honors. The girls' squad finished 7-7, equaling last year's record and, more importantly groomed younger runners to fill the shoes of departing seniors Jess Bruso, Laura Kennedy, Alex Stone, and Angela Lucke. Megan Donn, Andrea Nelson, Eileen Marble, Lindsay Yorns, and Cara Tigie will return to take up the chase next fall.

The 1999 Spartan girls' basketball team finished with a record of 16-6, their third consecutive year of improvement. The team got off to an exceptional start as the girls reeled off seven straight victories in their inaugural season of Division 1 competition. The squad was led by a trio of seniors, who had played four varsity years together in red-and- gray: co-captains Amy Bertrand and Julie Niznik, and guard Kate Lelas. Niznik became only the 4th player in school history to reach 1000-point plateau, scoring the milestone basket in a lopsided loss to powerful South Hadley. EL would later avenge that defeat, handing the Tigers their only loss, and go on to defeat Cathedral in the first round of the playoffs. The Spartans bowed to eventual Wmass champ Minnechaug, but should be even stronger next winter as leading rebounder Jess Pieciul, low post scorer Ashley Pelzek, and point guard Rochelle Keefe all return, along with Annette and Stella Quatrano, Corrie Ackerley, and Erin Duffy. Do we hear 17-S?

East Longmeadow's 1998-99 team was not expected to have as much success as they had enjoyed in previous years, however, captains Ryan Martin, Kevin Shikoluk, Dave Skowron and Eric Witowski led the team to an outstanding 10-2 record, the only losses coming in close fought meets with Westfield and Longmeadow. The team's depth guided them into the top of the class. Sophomores Mike Bareiss and Seniors Joe John and Brian Houser made significant contributions to many of the team's victories. The team finished fifth overall in Western Mass, boasting a second place victory in the 200 freestyle relay Mike Bareiss, Eric Witowski, Ryan Martin, Dave Skowron) along with many other great finishes during the season. Dave Skowron placed third in the 200 IM and second in the 100 butterfly, capturing the school record with a time of 55.3. Ryan Martin also placed in the top six in the 50 and 100 freestyle events. With the loss of six seniors this year, the team is hoping to regain strength next year from the returnees as well as some incoming freshmen. Congratulations to Coach Bolles and Coach Gonsalves for another spectacular season!

Alex finished second in individual competition, third overall in WMass, eighth at the league championships in the giant slalom, and twenty-fifth at the state championships. Juniors Abby Rohlf and Karoline Flynn also won seeded bids for the league championships. The boys, lead by captains Ryan Shaw, Joe Barkson, Kevin Lennon, and Sean McCauley had a rough season. They started off with a surprising first place finish in Division B. Halfway through the season, though, captain Sean McCauley, who had until that point ranked in the top ten of the division, was injured. Ryan Shaw continued to have an excellent season, which culminated at the league championships where he placed twenty-fifth. Junior Mike Atwater earned a seeded bib at the league championships. Seniors Kevin Lennon, Luke Baran, Steve Haynes, juniors Nick Jonah, Ryan Duffy, sophomores Ben Wilson, Tom Fitzgerald, Erik Hart, Chris Ciocca, and freshmen Pat Duplessis worked hard, enabling the team to finish third in Division B.

United States- country in N. America; population 275,000,000; home of the free, the brave, the tired, the poor, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore, hoop dreams, and basketball!

The Spartans were faced with a difficult challenge this season. Not only did they have to move up to a Division I schedule, they lost their entire starting five to graduation, as well. Led by senior co-captains Ben Deane and Todd Fratar, the team posted an 8-12 record, missing the playoffs by only two games. The season was highlighted by impressive victories over Greenfield and Ludlow on senior night. Complimenting the senior talent was a strong line of underclassmen. This group included Demetrius Wilson, Jeff Zilch, Frank Paige, Tim Halpin, Jeff Brown, and Adam Fenn. A rising star in the system is freshman phenom Casey Butler. After missing the playoffs for the first time in four years, these young Spartans should be hungry.

After tying Southwick for the league title, the Spartans maintained their undefeated record to bring home their first championship banner. Unlike other years, when individuals were successful while the team had mixed results, this year's lineup was one of the strongest in school history. Seniors Joe Costa (119), Kevin Ford (130), Bill Borowiec (140), Anthony Verdile (145), Dan Burke (152), Brendan Humphries (152/160), Matt Stula (160), Chris Mancini (189) and Adam Edwards (215) were the dominant wrestlers in the division and will be greatly missed next year. Returnees next year include, Jeff Bouyea, Mike Katz, Scott Honecker, Phil Costello, Jay Chapdelaine, Jeff Temkin, Ben Lantaigne, Joe Celetti, Dave Wilson, Rich Mancini and Brendan O'Heir. This year's performance will go down in history thanks to Coach Kosel's instruction and Coach Dean's drills.

The 98-99 girls' swim team went into the season with high expectations. The team had the ability, depth, and experience to become champs of the A-division and contend for the WMass title. Led by their seven seniors: co-captains Jayme Brown, Julie Moran, Diane Bourbeau, Jess Bruso, Juli Kibbe, Desire Thorpe, and Jaime Young, the Spartans finished their dual meet season with a perfect 12-0 record including victories over rivals Amherst and Westfield to win the A-Division. Four school records were also broken this season including the 100 fly by freshman Erika Gregory, and all three relays (200 MR, 200 FR, and 400 FR). The Spartans went on to tie Amherst and earn a share of the WMass title. The team received victories from freshman Heather Superson in the 200 free, Erika in the 100 fly, and the record-breaking 400 free relay team of Heather, Erika, fellow freshman Kristen Gonsalves, and junior Jen Parker. The Spartans also went on to earn third place at States. Juniors Kate Lucas and Theresa Yacavone, sophomores Aimee Levesque and Lori Overlock, and freshmen Sarah Myksin and Heather Parker also had impressive swims this year and hope to help the team defend their titles.

Although their 7-12-1 record did not qualify them for postseason play, the Spartans were far from also-rans. Chris Calcasola broke the 100 career points mark, making him only the sixth player in EL history to do so. Offensively, the Spartans were led by Calcasola (captain), Nate Conz, and Brent Bousquet, each of whom finished among the Fay Division's top ten scorers. Sophomore Dan Dickson centered a line of promising young players John Bracci, Matt Breton, Nick Merrill, and Andy Wright, each receiving ample playing time on the wings. On defense, the Spartans relied on Matt Perella (captain), Mike Beaulieu, and team MVP Kevin Minchella to control opposing forwards. Justin Gamache, Brian Milbier, Alex Grisaru, and Chris Rowley also saw quality varsity minutes. Goaltending chores were shared by seniors Mike Breton (captain), and Mike Lupi. With Calcasola, Perella, Gamache, Breton, and Lupi graduating along with Ed Bednarz, Jason Marchant, and Joe Stefano, next year's team must look to their youth and gain experience to continue the team's winning tradition. Conz will captain, with Minchella, Bracci, and Dickson assuming the role of assistant captains. Bousquet will look to improve upon his impressive freshman campaign, while Mike Ward-Homer should contend for the starting goaltender spot.

Dear Nathan,

As our paths diverge and you set out to pursue your own interests please remember that life is more than just work and study. We know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do and we want you to continue to enjoy the special "gifts" in life:

Travel (remember the Anasazi Indians at Mesa Verde! Haha) Music - Continue to appreciate the voices and composers that list the spirit and soothe the soul. Language- In this global world, embrace diversity and meet your colleagues on level ground. Books- Listen to what Mémère said, "If you will never be lonely." Souviens-toi, mon fils. Sois gentil à toi-même. Prends le temps à respirer. Nous t'aimons beaucoup. Maintenant, vole.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Dan

P.S. We always knew you would grow up to be a champion.

To my daughter, Jackie Scully
From your mother, Maureen

I don't know where the time has gone. From the first moment I saw you, my life became complete. You are a beautiful and special person. I wish you love, happiness and success in your life. I am so proud to be your mother and to have you for my daughter.

All my love, Mom

Melissa,

Congratulations! We are so proud of all your hard work and dedication you put in everything you do. Good luck in whatever you choose to do in the future.

*We love you!
Mom, Dad, and Ronnie*

David,

Congratulations! You did it! How proud we are of you. Keep looking ahead to your bright and promising future.

*All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Sarah*

*Congratulations Eric!

Tom and Winona Witowski*

For 17 years we've watched as you grew up. Being the youngest made you special to all of us, although it probably wasn't always easy for you. So many people to listen to, so many opinions to choose from, but no matter what you did, or choice you made, you always tried your hardest, and did your best. Be proud of that Brendan, because we are.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Kevin,

Parents give their children two things: roots to grow into fine, honest, loving human beings, and wings to fly into the world to explore, be inquisitive, and try new things. Giving you roots has been a wonderful and joyful experience, one we cherish with all our hearts. We've clipped those wings over the years until now. You've earned your wings as a confident, hardworking, compassionate person. Take them now, Kevin, and fly. We love you and are proud to call you our son and brother.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jeff

Congratulations, Carla!

To our little Italian Princess:

We are so proud of you. You are a very special daughter and sister. You have what it takes to succeed in life. GO FOR IT! Best wishes and happiness always.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Antoinette, Maria, and Anna

Congratulations, Mike

Mom, Dad, Tom and Jack

Erica,

Wasn't it only yesterday that we called you our "little munchkin"? You've grown up to be a thoughtful, intelligent, and beautiful young lady. We couldn't be more proud of you. As you begin this new chapter of your life, many possibilities and challenges will open up, that you are ready for. Your future is unlimited. Always believe in yourself and follow your dreams. You've brought so much joy and sunshine into our lives and we love you so much.

Mom & Dad

Jason,

You grew up when we weren't looking! We are so proud of the man you have become and the choices you have made. It's a big world out there and it will be a much better place with you in it ... but shhh, it's a secret. So set your goals high and don't stop until you get there. Your strength and integrity will get you far. Remember we will always be there for you.

We love you!

Mom, Dad, and Jeff

Congratulations Tracy!
 May all your hopes and dreams come true. We are so proud of you.
Love, Mom, Dad, and Kerry

We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. Live your dreams and enjoy life. You are a wonderful son and brother. We love you dearly.

Best of luck

Congratulations Jayme! You've worked hard the past four years, and we're very proud of you. Be sure to take the times to reflect on your many accomplishments before your days at ELHS become the "good old days". There's more hard work ahead, but we know you can do it. Good luck and much success in achieving all your dreams!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Tim

Dear Andrea:
You have worked hard, had fun, and done well throughout your school years. You are an inspiration to all who know you. The world awaits you eagerly because there is only one Andrea Corbett and you can truly make a difference. Promise us that you'll always remember what a special person you are. Promise to hold on to your hopes and pursue your dreams. Promise us you'll live with happiness throughout your life. Promise us that when you think of us, it will always be with your beautiful smile.

Promise that you'll "remember when" and always "look forward to " Promise us you'll do the things you have always wanted to do. Enjoy life, cherish your dreams and always remember our wishes for you We wish you a life of love and joy. May all your dreams come true.

-LOVE
Mom, Dad, and Ryan

Rob: "My little guy," you have made us so proud of your accomplishments. You had to overcome a serious life-threatening illness as a child and you succeeded. Your start in life was rough, but it has made you a stronger and determined young man. I know your future will be bright and your goals will come true. We love you for who you are.

Love, Mom and Dad

Robbie: My big brother! Remember all those "fun" times we had together when we were younger? We had our so-called "moments" though. You're stubborn, but funny, and sometimes "nice". We have a special bond between us, let's not ruin that when you go off to college.

Love ya', Missy

Margaret Ann,
It seems like only yesterday you were starting kindergarten. It's hard to believe the years have gone by so fast. We've watched you grow from a shy little girl to a beautiful, intelligent young woman. You've worked so hard and accomplished so much. You have always made us proud and I know you always will. Remember we're always there for you. We love you.

Congratulations,
Mom, Dad, and Michael

Kim Congratulations!

From your first recital at age three to memorizing your very first poem in kindergarten, to your high school graduation, you have continuously made us proud of you and all your accomplishments. As you reach for the stars, know that our love and support are always with you in any dream you decide to follow. Remember- Life is a stage and you choose the role you want to play. Believe in yourself and you will succeed in life. We love you and are excited for you.

*Love,
Mom and Dad*

CONGRATULATIONS TODD!

From your kindergarten days to senior year, you've given us so much to be proud of. We wish you the best of luck in the future and may your dreams be fulfilled.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Meredith, and Courtney*

Magda,

"I wish you love and beauty, joy and excitement, discovery and achievement. I wish I could pass on to you the pleasures the years have given me. Books. Pictures. Music. Places. But you have your own wonders waiting for you. I wish I could go with you, but this is your adventure." Love, Mom. Congratulations and good luck! Dad, Mom, Pawel, Lukasz and Marysia.

Congratulations and good luck to our favorite older brother, Jeffrey.

*Love,
Kathleen and Robert*

Jennifer,

The day you stepped out the front door on your way to kindergarten seems just a moment ago. It seems hardly enough time for you to have become the beautiful, self-assured, young woman you are today. What a wonderful journey your childhood has been for us! What a wonderful daughter you have been! Congratulations and we hope for you continues success in your college years and beyond.

*All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Greg*

Anthony,
Congratulations! You have worked very hard and we are proud of you. We love you and wish you much happiness in your future.
Best of luck!

Way to Go Shaun!
Love, Dad, Mom, Chris, and Jaime

Amy,
You've made us very proud of you. It seems like every year our Little Amy Dorothy has accomplished something else to make us grateful we have you. We miss our little Amy, but surely love the way our big Amy has grown up. We love you.

Mom, Dad, Lindsay, and Goober

April,
Congratulations to a wonderful daughter and sister. You have made us very proud and we love you. We wish you the best that life has to offer. May your future be filled with happiness and all your dreams come true.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Melissa

Congratulations Ben!

Our hearts are filled with love and pride for the wonderful person you have become and all that you have achieved. You mean so much to this family. Hold your memories dear, follow your heart and believe in yourself. Your future is bright with promise. We wish you much success and happiness.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Hannah, and Chris

Dear David,
Congratulations on your graduation from high school. This means that you will be taking charge of your own life, meeting challenges that lie ahead, and making a difference in the world. Remember that our love and support will always be there for you.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Danielle, Katelyn,
and Peter

Congratulations Jeff!

It's hard to believe that you will be off to college. The years have passed too quickly! We are, and always have been, proud of you! You are a good, sensitive and ambitious person. Believe in yourself and the pieces will fall into place. Keep up the good work! We will always be here for you as you continue to "build" a successful career.

We love you!
Mom, Dad, Erik, Kris

Kim Huckins

You made it! You've always worked hard and you deserve what you have. Thanks for always being there for me, you know I'll always be here for you.

Love,
Tom

Katie,

We've proudly watched you grow into a beautiful, caring young woman. You have shown that you have the strength to survive, the heart to love, and the zest for life to enjoy. Always cherish the memories of the past; enjoy every minute of the present; and never stop dreaming of the future.

We love you
Mom, Dad, Jen, & Chuck

Michelle,

May your future be happy, healthy and successful as you follow your dreams. Our love and wishes to a beautiful, thoughtful loving daughter whose smile and laughter brightens our everyday. Congratulations and best of luck in all that you do. We love you and we are so proud of you.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, Patrizia

CONGRATULATIONS KIM!

You have faced many challenges and you have always come out on top. And you've done it again. Over the years as we watched you grow, you have made us more proud each and every day. You have what it takes to be very happy and successful. Just stay confident, work hard, and follow your heart and dreams. All our love, Mom and Dad

To our big brother Ben, who was always beating us up:

Thanks for being there when we needed it most!

*Love,
Hannah, Chris,
Coco, and Nellie*

Lisa-

Thank you for being the wonderful daughter/sister that you are. Your gift of love and laughter is one to be proud of. Never lose sight of what you want in life. We are all very proud of your accomplishments. Congratulations and continue to hold your head up high. Good luck in whatever you do and wherever you go.

*Love,
Mom, Dad,
Heather,
Chip, and Buddy*

Kerry,

We can't believe you're graduating from high school - the years go by too fast. We love you and are extremely proud of you. Best of luck in college.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, and Ryan*

This is your time, to celebrate and enjoy, to feel good about your achievements and look forward to new adventures. It means a lot to us to share in your excitement because you're so special to us and loved so very much.

We are so proud of you, Diane!

Love,
Mom, Dad, David, & Dawn

*Dear Chris,
Congratulations!*

We know that you will bring those great dreams of yours into reality. As you start this new chapter in your life, may your sincere appreciation of family, faith, and good friends grow even deeper. Thanks for all the great memories, fun, and happiness that you have given us so far. We still feel that we are the luckiest parents on Earth!

*Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jen*

To Terrence,
 Congratulations! We are very proud of you. Your perseverance, determination,

Congratulations Brandie!

*When we look at you now we can't help but see a beautiful, thoughtful, caring, young woman with a loving heart. You deserve only the best life has to offer, with a little hard work and dedication, dreams do come true-never give up. You're the kind of woman that lights up a room, touches many hearts and makes us proud every single day that we have you.
 Always remember, "We'll love you forever, we'll like you for always, as long as we're living, our baby you'll be."*

I Spy

I spy with my little eye,
Days gone by of a girl named "Pie"

First months of life
Oh, what a year!
And then you smiled,
Erasing our fear.

Binkie, and Blankie, and
Oscar the Grouch
Joined story time marathons
Each day on the couch.

Naptime. Wake up!
Straighten the sheets.
Look in the Pockets Book
Find all the treats.

Juli!! Kim!!
It's time to play.
Who's wearing the prettiest
Dress today!

Barbies, Barbies!!
Strewn all about.
But where is Ashleigh??
In her closet,
No doubt!

There's been Fluffer, and Tinsel,
And Toto, of course,
"But when do you think I can have a horse?"

Crosswords, sketchbooks, and
Journals galore
Trampolines and Nick&Dicks
At the cape shore.

Red color "Iemon"
Soon turned out to be
A vehicle of nightmares
All for a fee.

Phones ringing
"Hey Mom, it's me.
I'm not sure what we're doing
But, I have my key."

I spy with my little eye,
A young woman named Ashleigh saying goodbye.

A new chapter's beginning
I've no doubt in my mind
You'll have wonderful new memories
Of the happiest kind.

Wisdom, kindness, confidence, love
All ingredients for happiness
Are what you're made of.

With my love,
Mom

Girls,

I want to thank you so much for all the good times and laughs you have given me over the years. I have a lifetime of great memories from basketball, softball, vacationing and just hanging out together.
Just like the "screen tent challenge" I'm sure you will meet and conquer whatever challenges you come up against later in life.

Thanks for everything,
Rich

Congratulations Anne!

Life is full of a variety of trips that are taken in different ways. Whether they are taken by land, sea, or air, we will experience some sort of travel in our lives that will further our education. A little bald eagle once told us at the beginning of the year that one of us would leave and that we would not be on agreeable terms once the book was finished. We began the school year with four editors, and yes, the little bald eagle was right; one flew the coup. The rest of us had to reestablish ourselves in how the nest would now be run in order to put the yearbook together. Since then, we, the editors have been like birds of a feather flocking together. We all knew that the book wouldn't get done without our perseverance and dedication, but we couldn't have done it along. Our overall year was a trip itself. We hit some speed bumps along the way and took a pit stop in Mr. Rahilly's office once in awhile. After that, Marty was back on the bus and our staff was back on track. One trip took eleven hours out of our weekend and our next deadline seemed unbearable with Spartanum at the same time. But by the end of March our trip had finally come to an end and we went home only to face the new journey in our lives. Thanks to our crew, who didn't jump ship when the seas got rough, your time and effort were very much appreciated! Though our staff was small, they did come through in tough times; Erin Hawley, Tim Brown, Danielle Bousquet, Jen Wood, Kathleen Wicks, Kim Perkins, Jen Rodriguez, Mike Atwater, Matt Brochu, Eric Cheung, Sarah Coyne, Melissa Cabey, Mike Cookish, and Wesley Ireland. Thanks also to those who weren't on our staff who came to help- it meant a lot to us! Finally, thank you very much Marty for still sticking with Aegis this year! This book definitely wouldn't have come out if you hadn't been here to help us. Good luck to next years' staff! Best Wishes!
